nobody else's BUSINESS

Building a business is one of life's biggest and most financially rewarding achievements. As an adviser, this is likely to be true not only for you but also for your business clients. Whether at the end of the day a business is kept, sold or closed, it should provide the profit needed for daily living and ultimately a comfortable retirement.

Nobody Else's Business will help you - and help you help your clients - to plan to profit from being in business. You will learn The Seven Deadly Sins of being in business and strategies that can turn businesses into the wealth generators you and your clients need them to be.

Nobody Else's Business is the road map that will help set you and your business clients on the road to financial freedom.
